Inscribed to the prolific children's writer 'Chas. B. Tayler from His affect[ionat]e Friend Bernard Barton.' A close friend of the poet, Tayler had been curate at Hadleigh in the 1820s and returned to Suffolk in 1846 as rector of Otley. Subsequent gilt bookplate & ownership signature of the poet 'John Drinkwater, 1923'. £165

- 29 BARTON, Bernard. Poems. Second edition, with additions. Baldwin, Cradock, and Joy. 1821. 12mo., xvi,236; slight occasional spotting but a good copy in handsome contemporary green roan elaborately gilt-ruled into central lozenge & corners, each with complex flower & leaf design which is repeated in four sections of backstrip, inner gilt dentelles & light blue watered silk endleaves, all edges gilt; slight rubbing at edges but still most attractive. Inscribed 'W.H. to M.W. 1819' [sic] and subsequently 'Alice M. Richardson. 1891.' With Introductory Verses to Barton's sister, the writer Maria Hack. Enlarged from the first edition of the previous year. £38

- 44 BETHAM-EDWARDS, Matilda. Mid-Victorian Memories. With a personal sketch by Mrs Sarah Grand. John Murray, 1919 FIRST EDITION, pp.lxvi,165; frontispiece portrait; a good copy in original blue cloth; extremities a little rubbed. Born in 1836 at Westerfield Hall, Suffolk, where she spent the first thirty years of her life, this penultimate work appeared shortly after the author's death. With a useful 60pp. biographical memoir by her friend Sarah Grand. £45
- 45 BLATCHLY, John. East Anglian Ex-Libris. Bookplates and labels made between 1700 and the present day. The Bookplate Society, 2008. FIRST EDITION limited to 100 copies, numbered & signed by the author for private distribution, (+ 350 copies for The Bookplate Society). Folio, pp.128; over 260 illustrations & facsimiles throughout (16 in colour); new in laminated pictorial card covers. A well produced sequel to Dr Blatchly's earlier 'Suffolk and Norfolk Ex-Libris', essential reading for local collectors for the biographical notes alone, with three separate indexes of: place, owner, and artists, engravers & printers, which incorporate both works. The first 75 copies sold will include a tipped-in copy of the pictorial bookplate etched by Suffolk painter Anna Airy for Sir Harry Newton, sometime MP for Harwich. A discreet crest and baronet's helm fills the lower left corner but the main feature of unpicked apples presumably alludes to Sir Isaac, from whom no one can claim direct descent. A noted yachtsman and expert on Danish husbandry, Sir Harry succeeded his father the 1st baronet in 1921 and died thirty years later. £18
- 46 BLATCHLY, John. Some Suffolk and Norfolk Ex-Libris. [with] East Anglian Ex-Libris... The Bookplate Society [&] The Author, 2000, 2008. Two works, new in original card covers as above. Available individually at £18, we can offer the two works together at a special price. £30
- 47 BLATCHLY, John. A Suffolk Herald's Library. Miss Joan Kersey Corder, F.S.A. 1921-2005. [Article in The Private Library Fifth Series Volume 9:4.] Private Libraries Association, 2006. Pp.(149-)188; illustrations include seven colour plates of heraldic MSS; very good in original printed wrappers. £8
- 48 BLATCHLY, John. The Topographers of Suffolk 1561 - 1935. Brief Biographies and Specimens of the Hands of Selected Suffolk Antiquaries. Second Edition (Revised). Suffolk Record Office, August, 1976. A4 format; ff.(4)49; printed on rectos only; facsimile illustrations on each leaf; a very good copy in original card wrappers with plastic strip binder. Signed by the author on title. £8
- 49 BLATCHLY, John. The Town Library of Ipswich provided for the use of the town preachers in 1599. A history and catalogue. The Boydell Press, 1989. FIRST EDITION, 4to., pp.x,199; 5 tipped-in colour plates & 11 illustrations & facsimiles in text; new in dust-wrapper. A fascinating & detailed study of a closed collection of c.1000 books & mss. dating from the 14th to 18th centuries with biographies of the founder & early benefactors. The analysis has revealed several remarkable features including a unique system of running fore-edge shelfmarks from which the arrangement of the books in 1651 can be deduced; booksellers' coded prices c.1600 have been 'broken' & a wealth of hitherto unknown book labels recorded. A remarkable account of significance well beyond its local interest. Published at £29.95. £15

- 50 BLATCHLY, John. EDEN, Peter. Isaac Johnson of Woodbridge 1754-1835 that ingenious artist. Suffolk Record Office, 1979. FIRST EDITION, landscape format; pp.32; half-tone illustrations & facsimile throughout (two in colour); a very good copy in original pictorial card wrappers. Peter Eden adds 'A Note on Isaac Johnson's Cartographic Style' to John Blatchly's biographical essay. £8
- 51 BLATCHLY, John. NORTHEAST, Peter. Decoding Flint Flushwork on Suffolk and Norfolk Churches. Suffolk Institute of Archaeology and History, 2005. FIRST EDITION, 600 copies printed; sm.4to., pp.viii,116; illustrations in line & half-tone throughout; new in pictorial card covers. 'A survey of more than 90 churches in the two counties where devices and inscriptions challenge interpretation'. A fascinating piece of detective work and important addition to the study of East Anglian churches. £15
- 52 BLOOMFIELD, Robert. Richard & Kate a Suffolk Ballad. [Engraved facsimile manuscript broadside with large head-piece vignette. No place or publisher. 1805?'] Engraved leaf 243 x 208mm max.; Bloomfield's signed manuscript of the first eight stanzas of the ballad first published in Rural Tales, 1804, printed in facsimile, recto only, on heavy wove paper; large engraved vignette after G. Harrison of 'Austin's farm at Sapiston Suffolk the early residence of Robert Bloomfield'. Lightly foxed & soiled; margins largely cut away just cropping text at left; vertical & horizontal folds with two old unobtrusive repairs to cracks along folds (no loss). Extremely scarce - we have been unable to locate another copy. Presumably produced early in the century at the height of Bloomfield's popularity. Few copies of this ephemeral piece can have survived. Bloomfield had been sent at the age of 11 to the farm of his mother's brother-in-law, William Austin, in the neighbouring village of Sapiston. 'Here he acquired his knowledge of rustic manners.' At fifteen, so small 'as to be of little use on the farm' he was sent to live in London with his brother George who undertook 'to teach him the shoemaking business'. A.H. Bullen in DNB. See illustration. £125
- 53 BLOOMFIELD. STORER, J. & GREIG, J. Views in Suffolk, Norfolk and Northamptonshire; illustrative of the works of Robert Bloomfield; accompanied with descriptions: to which is annexed, A Memoir of the Poet's Life by E.W. Brayley. Vernor, Hood & Sharpe; Darton & Harvey; and J. Storer & J. Greig, Engravers, 1806. Pp.56; 14 copper plates and extra engraved title with portrait vignette; contemporary half calf, backstrip gilt; extremities rubbed, upper hinge renewed. SB 2546. £65
- 54 BLYTHE, Ronald. NASH, John [Illustrator] Word from Wormingford. A Parish Year. With illustrations by John Nash. Viking, 1997. Pp.(6)245; illustrations in line throughout by John Nash; a fine copy in dust-wrapper of Blythe's 'beautifully observed calendar of a year in the Church and in the country'. £15
- 55 BOSMERE & CLAYDON. POOR LAW. An Act for repealing an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, for the better Relief and Employment of the Poor in the Hundred of Bosmere and Claydon in the County of Suffolk, and for granting more effectual Powers instead thereof. 29th March 1833. George Eyre and Andrew Spottiswoode, 1833. Folio, pp.(13-)43; drop-head title with woodcut armorial headpiece; very good in green rexine-backed boards. £15

- 461 SUFFOLK ELECTION. Bonnie Blue. A Banner of Bonnie Blue we'll bear, High hearts and true! For in all the regions of earth and air, There is not a colour so bright and fair, As Bonnie Blue! [No place or printer but probably Deck, Ipswich. 1832] Broadside (205 x 155mm), printed on recto only of Cambridge blue printed paper; light fold creases, otherwise well preserved. Four verses of pro-Tory doggerel with a romantic country feel. From the George Arnott archive of ephemera printed for the first post Reform Bill election for the new constituency of East Suffolk. £25
- 462 SUFFOLK ELECTION. A REAL REFORMER. CAUTION. Reformers, you have fought under the Banners of the principles that fixed the House of Brunswick on the Throne of England... Your Enemies would gladly join your ranks, but it must be under the mask of Friendship; they... give the Poor a Dinner, to celebrate this Great Charter of England. They would gladly do it that their Creed may not be known; but the Eleventh hour is too late for the field in a cause like this... J. Munro, Printer, Bookseller and Binder, Woodbridge [1832] Broadside (190 x 215mm), printed on recto only; tear neatly repaired, slightly soiled but well preserved. Faint contemporary ownership signature of 'Mr B. Gale, Woodbridge' in head margin. Produced for the first post Reform Bill election for the newly-formed East Suffolk constituency. £25
- 463 SUFFOLK ELECTION. HENNIKER & BROKE VERE FOR EVER !!! Come from the hills where your flocks are all grazing; Come from the cares of the farm and the cote; Come to the post where the beacon is blazing, Come with your hearts, and your voice, and your vote. [No place or publisher but probably Deck, Ipswich 1832/35] Broadside (220 x 138mm), printed on recto only; slightly soiled but well preserved. Twenty lines of pro-Tory doggerel. Evidently produced either for the first post Reform Bill election which elected Henniker with the Whig Shawe, or for 1835 when the two Tory candidates triumphed. See illustration. £35
- 464 SUFFOLK ELECTION. HENNIKER & BROKE VERE. Come rally for your Colours, Ye loyal men, and true, The soundest hearts in Suffolk Were ever for the Blue... Deck, Printer, Ipswich. [1832] Broadside (225 x 110mm), printed on recto only; well preserved. Eight verses of pro-Tory doggerel with a refreshingly direct approach to the male electorate, offering popularity with the Ladies of Suffolk & appealing to the worthy yeoman's chivalry against sedition, gallantry, honour and respect 'For Vere, who's served his country / In many a hard campaign, And won the deathless laurels / Of Waterloo and Spain.' £35

- 465 SUFFOLK ELECTION. HENNIKER & BROKE VERE. IMPROMPTU on hearing of the Resignation Of Mr. Fitzgerald. Let Suffolk be firm, and Conservatives steady, For one of the Whigs has bolted already, And he who remains is the colour of straw, Whom men cannot mention without crying, pShaw. Deck, Printer, Ipswich. [with] A Committee Room TO LET, enquire of Mr. Charles Moor, agent to John Fitz-Gerald, Esq. J. Loder, Printer and Bookseller, Woodbridge, [1832] Two broadsides, printed on rectos only; (140x224 & 210 x 280mm); short marginal tears, the latter with puncture holes, but no loss. Shaw & FitzGerald stood as Whig candidates in this first post Reform Bill election. The two seats on offer were won by Lord Henniker for the Tories & the Whig, Robert Shawe. £35
- 466 SUFFOLK ELECTION. HENNIKER & BROKE VERE. To the Electors of the Eastern Division of the County of Suffolk... Let Electors be firm, and Conservatives steady, For one of the Whigs flies the contest already; And he who remains is a puppet of straw, Whose name you can't mention without saying p'Shaw! [No place, date nor publisher but probably Deck, Ipswich] [with] ELECTORS of East Suffolk! You will shortly have to determine whether you will return as your Representatives, men to whom you are almost unknown... or... men bound to you by every tie... Henniker & Broke... Ipswich, Dec. 1st, 1832. Jackson, Printer, Ipswich [1832] Two broadsides, printed on rectos only; (190 x 225 & 260 x 185mm); latter torn without loss, otherwise well preserved. Shaw & FitzGerald stood as Whig candidates in this first post Reform Bill election for the newly-formed East Suffolk constituency. The two seats on offer were won by Lord Henniker for the Tories & the Whig, Robert Shawe, John FitzGerald having withdrawn before the vote. £35
- 467 SUFFOLK ELECTION. HENNIKER & BROKE VERE. The True Blue Flag. ...Suffolk Voters, here you see, Poll away, yeo hol boys, / Pipe all hands with merry glee, For Henniker and Vere! boys; / These you'll find are at their post, and with them both a goodly host, / Of pretty girls that they love most, As you know how, know how, boys. [No place or publisher, 1832/35] Broadside (170 x 108mm), printed on recto only; a little marked, paper flaw at bottom right corner (well clear of text). Three verses of pro-Tory doggerel with a refreshingly direct approach to the male electorate. Evidently produced either for the first post Reform Bill election for the new constituency of East Suffolk at which Henniker was elected with the Whig Shawe, or for 1835 when the two Tory candidates triumphed. £35
- 468 SUFFOLK ELECTION. HENNIKER & BROKE VERE. The Yellow Fever. A New Song, to the Tune of "Derry Down." Jackson, Printer, Ipswich [1832] Broadside, printed on recto only; (240 x 185mm); rough trimmed but well preserved. 18 verses of doggerel with much play on the candidates names and praise for Henniker & Vere with their little Blue Pill and mockery of the diseased Whigs, Shaw & FitzGerald. See illustration. £35
- 469 SUFFOLK ELECTION. HENNIKER & VERE. The Banners of Blue. Tune, "Hearts of Oak." J. Loder, Printer and Bookseller, Woodbridge. [1832] Broadside (225 x 140mm), printed on recto only; slightly soiled & marked, torn along horizontal fold without loss. Five stanzas of flag-waving pro-Tory doggerel: 'In vain our Opponents may boast, lie, and fret, We know well the tricks of the Radical set, For the day of the battle they surely will rue, Whilst we triumph and shout with our Banners of Blue.' Printed at the first post Reform Bill election for the new constituency of East Suffolk at which Henniker was elected with the Whig Shawe. In 1835 both Tory candidates, Broke Vere & Lord Henniker, got in. £30
- 470 SUFFOLK ELECTION. HENNIKER & VERE. England's Watchwords. ...Then raise the proud standard, nor fear to proclaim / Your tenets to Loyalty true; / 'Tis inscribed with a Vere's and a Henniker's name, / Then success to the 'Banner of Blue!' J. Munro, Printer, Woodbridge [1832/35] Broadside (225 x 142mm), printed on recto only; slightly soiled but well preserved. A seven-stanza pro-Tory ballad which raises the spectres of Radical, Traitor & Catholic, against Church, State & King. Evidently produced either for the first post Reform Bill election for the new constituency of East Suffolk at which Henniker was elected with the Whig Shawe, or for 1835 when the two Tory candidates triumphed. By the 1843 by-election Charles Broke Vere had been replaced by Lord Rendlesham. £35

- 471 SUFFOLK ELECTION. SHAWE & FITZGERALD. HALF MEASURES Do no Good. ELECTORS, The High Tory Canvassers will try to persuade you to split your votes between the two parties... Vote for Shawe AND FitzGerald, or your opponents, when they have duped and defeated, will deride and despise you. J. Munro, Printer, Woodbridge [1832] Broadside (280 x 210mm), printed on recto only; slightly soiled but well preserved. The Whigs campaigned to get both Liberals elected at this first post Reform Bill election for the new constituency of East Suffolk. In the event the Tory Lord Henniker was first past the post & Shawe elected as the second member. From 1835 onwards East Suffolk returned two Tory members until its replacement by five single-member constituencies in 1885. See illustration. £25
